Speaker Notifications
All speakers should have received their acceptance and scheduling notifications earlier this month from ICE organizers. These notifications included the assigned session, date and presentation time. Presenters from outside the U.S. should also have received an official letter of acceptance/invitation that may be used for visa and funding application purposes. Invitations may also be requested here.

Call for Photos for Insect Photo Salon – Deadline 20 August
Consider submitting your photographs of insects and related arthropods which will be shown to ICE delegates during the Congress. Details here.

Reserve an Optional Tour Before They Sell Out
Enjoy a close-up look at alligators and exotic wildlife as you glide through 4,200 acres of untouched nature preserve on an airboat ride. Learn what happens behind-the-scenes at Walt Disney World’s Animal Kingdom. Travel to the future and around the world at Disney’s Epcot park. Explore an amazing 50-acre botanical oasis in Leu Gardens. If any of these tours sound exciting, don’t miss out – secure your tour tickets today!

Gala Dinner Tickets are Selling Fast - Purchase Yours Now
Don’t wait if you plan to join your colleagues for an all-immersive experience under the ICE ‘big-top’ on Thursday evening. Cirque du Soleil performers will surround and entertain you with juggling, balancing and aerial acts, and much more. This unique dining experience provides you with an up-close-and-personal view of the most memorizing performances of the week. Each Gala ticket includes a four-course dinner, one drink ticket for cocktail hour and wine service with dinner. Click to see the menu choices. Reserve your ticket during registration.

Plan to Stay Through Friday’s Farewell Dinner: Hot Florida Nights!
Enjoy the final night of ICE 2016 and celebrate a week-long of learning, sharing and camaraderie with colleagues and friends from around the world! Hot Latin and salsa beats showcasing the hottest in music from south Florida will cap off our fantastic week in Florida. An assembly of action stations showcasing the best of south Florida will energize you to dance the night away. One Farewell Dinner ticket is included with each ICE 2016 paid registration.

Post Your Open Positions on ESA’s Online Career Center
Have an open entomological position? Consider posting your job opportunities on ESA’s online Career Center, which is one of the top viewed pages on ESA’s website, reaching entomologists and others from around the world. The Career Center postings will be available during the Congress. Details for posting may be found here.

Childcare Program – Camp ICE
ESA will be providing on-site childcare during the Congress free of charge for registered ICE attendees. Camp ICE will be conveniently located at the Rosen Plaza Hotel, adjacent to the Orange County Convention Center. Dates, times, and details may be found here.
Call for ‘YouTube Your Entomology’ Video Contest Entries – Deadline 26 June
ESA is accepting entries for the 2016 ‘YouTube Your Entomology’ Video Contest. This contest gives ESA members the opportunity to showcase their talents and creativity through video. All entries will be judged on picture quality, sound quality, creativity, and entomological accuracy; one winner and one runner-up will each receive an ESA “Stinger” award, as well as a cash prizes (USD$400 for the winner and USD$200 for the runner-up). Awards will be made during the Congress. Submit here.

Call for Global Linnaean Game Teams
Encourage students you know to assemble a team and play in this exciting question-and-answer, college bowl-style competition on entomological facts played between university-sponsored student teams. Each team is composed of four players. The teams score points by answering questions correctly. Learn more about the games and submit a team here.
